DEDICATION

"THE SPIRIT OF BASIC HIGH SCHOOL"

FOREWORD

We have made several changes in the annual which we hope meet with your approval.

Our theme was built around our school emblem—the wolf—and the desert. We felt that it was best to leave this theme unnamed.

One of the major changes was in the dedication. In the past the annual has been dedicated to some person. This year's dedication, to "The Spirit of Basic High School," was chosen because of the excellent school spirit shown throughout the year. This spirit was culminated by winning the sportsmanship trophy at the Southern Zone basketball tournament and the "A" consolation trophy at the State basketball tournament.

One of the major aims of your teachers and administrators during the course of your school lives has been to help each one of you develop a philosophy which would enable you to meet both the ordinary and extraordinary problems of life. Part of your philosophy should be based upon the American spirit of progress. This spirit has been best expressed by Thomas A. Edison when he said, "There's a way to do it better—find it!"

It is our sincere wish that each one of you will have a happy and successful life searching for the "better ways."

SENIORS

Freshman year seems so far away now. Remember our freshman assembly and how we just couldn't get away from those "terrible seniors?" It was a great thrill when we won the state basketball championship in Vegas during our sophomore year. Waiting impatiently for our junior class rings was unbearable.

Shakespeare, a very respectable fellow, will probably always be remembered for his vast vocabulary. It's doubtless that everyone will forget $-s^2 + 5s + 104$.

Now at last our senior year draws to a close and we can look forward to choosing a career and taking a more responsible place in the community.

As the '57-'58 school year draws its curtains shut, the junior class looks back over its three years at Basic as three of the most successful years ever completed. With great pride they recall the title "upperclassmen," only to remember the many responsibilities and privileges it brought. First and foremost in their minds was the receiving of the beautiful class rings and the choosing and crowning of the Junior Prom queen. Then there were the junior class play, assembly, and carnival. All these memories belong to them. The curtains are now closed and yesterday's juniors step off the stage to get ready for the next act — seniors!

The sophomore Class stepped into the spotlight this year with the memories of their freshman year behind them.

With the excitement of being sophomores this group of students didn't hesitate to start in the realm of responsibility set before them.

They started out with their novel reverse that was truly "Out of This World," and their class assembly which was very clever and lived up to all expectations.

The members of this class should remember this as a truly eventful and wonderful year.

"Where is room 5? On which side is the girls' gym? How do these lockers work?"

These and many other low-voiced questions could be heard on the freshman wing at the start of the year, but the quiet and solitude has been lost. Now as cheerful, confident members of the student body of Basic High School, the freshmen add to the sound of voices in the halls.

The freshman class has been very active this year, starting with its "Freshman Frolic," with the theme of "Harvest Moon;" the booths at the "Junior Carnival;" the class assembly; the participation in pep assemblies, and the many other activities of the class.

GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

"Ah, come on, down on your knees! I said, Crawl! I remember distinctly stating 'absolutely no make-up.' Go wipe that lipstick off immediately!" And away she goes down the corridor in baggy jeans and long shirt many sizes too big. Thus was the G.A.A. initiation. Then it was all over and the girls were full-fledged members of the Girls' Athletic Association.

This organization is open to all girls interested in athletic activities and gives them an opportunity to develop their athletic abilities and also to get acquainted with the girls in their school. G.A.A. has had a very successful year under the guidance of Miss Tippin, advisor.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

When a boy letters in any major sport at Basic High School he becomes eligible for membership in the Lettermen's Club.

Among their major activities was the annual Charleston picnic, which lived up to expectations. During all football games you could see numerous boys in snappy blue jackets crying with hearty yells, "Peanuts!" The proceeds from this project helped support the club.

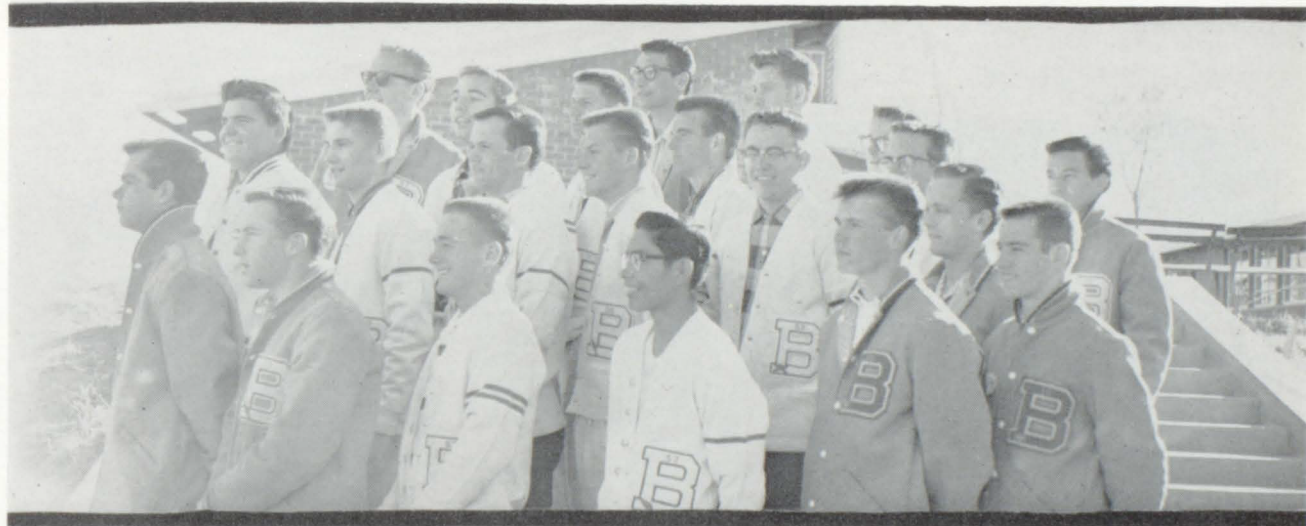

With the help of all the coaches, this club has been made an honor for any boy who letters.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Although we have no crystal ball to glance into and see the future, it can be certain the girls belonging to Commercial Club will be some of the business leaders of tomorrow. Through Commercial Club they learn about secretarial duties, stenographers' life and business women in the U.S. to help them decide where their future lies. Throughout the year they have sold ice cream during lunch periods, sold at concessions, decorated the football goal posts and participated in various other activities. They climaxed their activities with a very enjoyable evening at one of the hotels.

"I need more copy; the deadline is tomorrow. Hurry and get your articles in. I need someone to type my article for me. Oh, no, was I supposed to write that; I completely forgot! Now, does everyone have his copy in? The paper goes to press tomorrow."

This is what might have been heard if you walked into journalism class between 8:15 and 9:15 some morning. These students worked untiringly to put out a paper that was of interest to the students. The editor, Rex Newell, and the staff deserve a hand for a fine paper Basic can be proud of.

SWING WILLIES

The Swing Willies, composed of Concert Band members under the direction of Walter Ford, had a very busy year.

Besides playing at the Las Vegas and Rancho assemblies, they played for Teenage and the Boulder City Junior Prom.

Their big event this year was the presentation of "Fantasy in Jazz" which was an over-whelming success. This was the first time any such jazz concert had ever been presented at Basic High. "Intermission Riff" was chosen as the theme, with such selections as "Tuxedo Junction," "Orange-Colored Skies," "Deep Purple," and many more too numerous to mention being played.

SENIOR PLAY

"Last night it stormed terribly. The thunder shook the house and the lightning seemed to cut the sky in two. I couldn't sleep—I never can sleep during storms. No matter how hard I tried, I couldn't prevent my mind from wandering back to that night—the night I'll never forget. Suddenly, I felt I was in that room again—the living room of the house that stood on the cliff—the living room where I knew happiness and fear. My mind began forming crazy patterns, and there in the midst of everything, I saw the gun just as it had been—lying there on the sofa . . ."

"The Night Is My Enemy," a chilling murder mystery was staged by the senior class on November 18 and 19, 1957. The success of this play could be measured by the piercing screams issued from the audience during tense moments of the play. Everyone is certain to remember this production for a long time to come.

Cast members: George Blackwell, Kathy Slavin, Sharon Taney, Doris Elkie, Paul Stout, Perry Cordill, Ann Peterson, Robert Trueworthy, Jerry Kopszywa, Jerry Blake, Judy Mathewson, student director.

JUNIOR PLAY

The room grew silent as the audience anxiously awaited the performance. The bright lights began to flash, not a sound was heard; then out of the stillness came:

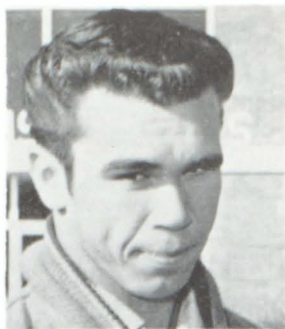

"Hear ye! Hear ye! Superior Court Number 14 of the State of Illinois is now in session, the Honorable Judge John Weston presiding." With this the junior class play, "The People Versus Maxine Lowe," had begun.

The courtroom dilemma plunged deeper into the case as each witness in turn took the stand. "Do you solemnly swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?"

If the success of the play could be determined by the proud gleam in the eyes of each of the cast's friends and relatives or by the generous, whole-hearted applause, the audience expressed at the unexpected conclusion, we can be certain the junior class play was a big success.

During June of each year a select group of junior students from high schools throughout the state is privileged to attend Girls and Boys States. This activity, designed to teach the students more about their government, is sponsored by various local organizations in cooperation with The American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary.

All delegates are selected for their leadership, sportsmanship, co-operation, and other personal qualities. Being selected as a delegate to Boys State or Girls State is one of the highest honors that can be bestowed upon a junior student.

HOMECOMING

The return of the alumni and the enthusiasm of the students made Homecoming an event which will never be forgotten.

Thrills raced through the crowd as lovely queen Emma Payne and her attendants were escorted onto the field with the sounds of "My Special Angel" echoing in the background. Co-captains Terry Hudgens and Steve Sullivan accompanied the lovely girls to the beautiful thrown of rainbow colors symbolic of the theme "Over the Rainbow."

A perfect climax to a perfect evening was the victory over the Boulder City Eagles.

The Basic Wolves varsity squad for the 1957-58 season was the first under the direction of Don Smith and Joe Cummings. It was also the first season in the newly-formed Big Six League. With only eight lettermen returning, the success of the team was uncertain. As the season progressed, new faces appeared from the junior and sophomore classes. The efforts of these boys coupled with the experience of the seniors produced a successful season.

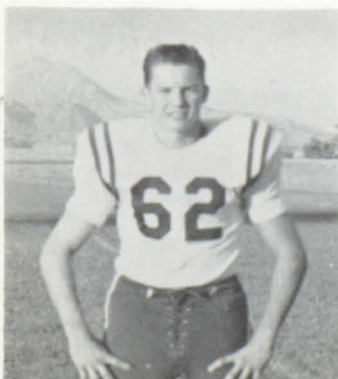

The team's "desire to win" produced outstanding performances against Sparks, White Pine, and Las Vegas, enabling the Wolves to finish in the league tied for third place. The high point of the season was Basic's victory over Boulder City at the annual Homecoming game, 33 to 7.

At the conclusion of the season the team voted to determine the season captain. A tie in the voting honored Steve Sullivan and Terry Hudgens as the team's co-captains for the 1957 season.

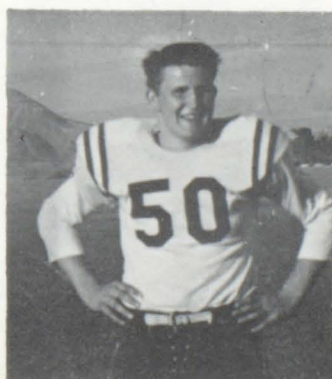

Other players receiving honors on the all-state team were:

Steve Sullivan	lineman of the year

J V FOOTBALL

Spirit, co-operation, and the support of the student body led the JV squad to a very successful season.

Because of their fine showing in Junior Varsity games fourteen boys were moved up to Varsity at the end of the season: Jim Spearman, Randy Mainor, Jeff Wiese, Ted Smith, Lester Dickens, Glen Charles, Don Hartle, Richard Derrick, Don Winklepleck, Robert Taylor, Jim Ullom, Max Freed, Jack White, and Mac Palsgrove.

BASKETBALL

The Basic Wolves basketball team under the coaching of Robert Lunt, played one of its most exciting seasons this year.

The climax was the wins over Bishop Gorman and Lincoln County, earning the Wolves a trip to the State Tournament for the fourth straight year. After losing a heartbreaker to Tahoe-Truckee, Basic came right back to defeat Bishop Manogue and Carson City to gain possession of the Nevada State Consolation Championship.

Guard Terry Hudgens and Center John Ivary were honored by being named to the All-Zone and All-State teams.

Terry Hudgens and Rick Patton were chosen co-captains for the year.
